

North Light Books: Q&A with Henry W. Dixon

LATEST NORTH LIGHT BOOK:

Paint Amazing Watercolors from Photographs

BORN IN:

Jacksonville, Florida

CURRENT RESIDENCE:

Kansas City, Missouri

KIDS AND/OR PETS?

Three Sons: Rodney, Reginald and Ryan

FAVORITE FOOD:

Too many to name!

FAVORITE MOVIE:

Lust For Life (the life of Vincent VanGogh)

FAVORITE QUOTE:

“Don’t judge a person by the color of their skin but by the content of their character.”

FAVORITE WEBSITE(S):

www.morganweistling.com/

FAVORITE ARTIST:

John Singer Sargent

FAVORITE BOOK (ART INSTRUCTION OR OTHER):

The Art of Howard Terpning

FIRST JOB EVER:

An usher at Orchestra Hall in Chicago

BEST JOB EVER:

Teaching design and drawing at a local college.

WHEN DID YOU FIRST WANT TO BE AN ARTIST?

When I was in elementary school.

GIVE US A TASTE OF YOUR LATEST PROJECT?

I’ve just completed a painting of four elderly gentlemen sitting on a concrete wall. Each one thinking a different thought from the other. It’s titled “The History Club.”

WHAT’S THE BEST ADVICE YOU RECEIVED?

Someone once told me that whenever I entered a national competition and my entry was rejected in one competition, it could be accepted in another. He was right and I’ve never looked back.